“ Judy was a wonderful person. I had the pleasure of knowing her and Joe when they were at my dental practice. They will be deeply missed. I want to wish their family the best in the future.

“ I only knew Judith for about eight years. She found out that I sold Avon and from there we became friends. I loved hearing her tell me her happy memories about her life with her beloved husband. I witnessed her go through the difficult transition from her house to her condo, and most recently preparing to move again to Farmington. She always asked how my son was doing. She listened as I told her how hard it would be to send my only off to college. Periodically I would run errands for her and enjoyed our conversations when I made my deliveries. I last saw her a day or two before Thanksgiving to check in and bring her some flowers. She wrote be the most beautiful thank you note comparing me to her husband. What an honor. I will cherish her words always. I was heartbroken when I stopped by her condo today to check in and hear the news of her passing from a neighbor. My deepest sympathy to Judith's family. She was a wonderful women and I will miss our visits. Keeping you all in my prayers.

“ Aunt Judy was a dear and caring auntie. She was someone I looked up to. I regret not spending more time with her. My sympathies to my "Connecticut cousins." Also my condolences to her step-family for whom she expressed great love. Many prayers, and I look forward to reuniting in heaven.

“ *Judy looks so happy in this photo!
I'm pretty sure it is from the day she and my Dad got married. After he died a few years ago, she found some consolation in her faith that they would be reunited again one day.
May she rest in peace. I will miss her.*
