“ Dear Tom, Jane and Family,

Sorry to hear about the loss of your Mother. I remember the couple of times that your parents would visit us on the beach at the Cape, to see your very large family all together was beautiful. Your Father is a strong/caring man to have taking such great care of your Mother.

Love,

“ Dear Mr.Fenton and Mrs. Kathy Reynolds, and family:

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your wife, Julia and your Mom, Kathy.

I can recall playing with you and seeing your parents as a child in our neighborhood and always enjoying talking with your parents. I will keep your Mom in my thoughts and prayers.

From an Old neighbor, Sincerely,Elaine Flanigan##imported-begin##Elaine##imported-end##

“ My memories of Julie Fenton stretch way back in time, probably to the mid-1950s, when I first arrived at Saint Thomas Seminary and began making weekly trips into Bloomfield Center though not really much of a center of anything at that time!. And what trek into Bloomfield would have been complete without a stop at that Fenton establishment that always seemed to have a warm welcome for a hungry seminarian. Years later, after graduate school and ordination, and thanks to Julie's good friends, the Bagnalls, our paths reconnected and, at least periodically, we'd see and greet one another at those various events, both happy and sad, which are the keystones of life and relationships. And there was never a time that my good fortune placed me in her company that I did not return home from that encounter a brighter, happier, better person. Julie exuded LIGHT! May the Lord now enfold her in that Light Eternal! With gratitude for a long life well spent, and with growing sadness at the disappearance from my life of such good and stalwart folks, I will continue to remember Julie Fenton with the fondness and the gratitude which her life so richly deserves.
