“ Danny and family,
I'm saddened to hear of Julia's passing. I have many fond memories of her and Manuel (Oso) and the great times together when they visited us in Enfield as a youngster, then the numerous gatherings for parties and celebrations in later years. Just the other day I came across pictures of their wedding where my mom was their maid of honor. She was so beautiful. I remember her being mild mannered and gentle and her eyes would light up when she smiled. May you find comfort through this difficult time of times shared together and all the good memories you'll reflect on. Julia will never be forgotten.
With heartfelt sympathy,
Christina Obregon McGinnis
Sra. Maria A. Obregon
