

Julie Ann Slimmon

April 20, 2023

Julie Ann Hovey Slimmon of Bloomfield, CT and Weekapaug, RI, April 20, 2023. She was born in Springfield, Massachusetts in 1930, daughter of Helen Bemis and Albert Heywood Hovey, both of Springfield. She is survived by daughter Jamie Slimmon Somes of Yarmouth, Maine; daughter Ann Slimmon Woolsey and son-in-law John M. Woolsey III of Providence, RI; and son Andrew Hovey Slimmon and daughter-in-law Karen Powers Slimmon of Chicago, IL; eight grandchildren: Martha, Helen, Charles, Clare, Nicholas, Kelly, Abigail, and Jacqueline; and one great-grandchild, Peter. Her husband of 67 years, James B. Slimmon, Jr passed away in 2021. She was a member of the Asylum Hill Congregational Church, the Town and County Club, and the Hartford Golf Club. She was also active in the Green Gardener's Garden Club and The Junior League of Hartford. She graduated from Dana Hall School in Wellesley, Massachusetts in 1948 and Connecticut College for Women in 1952. She enjoyed music and singing throughout her life. Trained in classical piano, she was song-leader for the Class of '52 at Connecticut College, and later, for over 25 years, she performed as a first soprano with the Better Half Notes in West Hartford. An enthusiastic tennis player and avid golfer, she also enjoyed her many sailing experiences with her husband Jim from the Caribbean to Maine.

Donations in her memory may be made to the Hartford Symphony Orchestra or to the Weekapaug Chapel Society. A memorial service will be held at the Weekapaug Chapel, Weekapaug, RI, on July 22, at 3:30 pm.
