

Julie Roiduka RisCassi

January 29, 2007

Julie Roiduka RisCassi, of West Hartford, previously of Hartford, died peacefully on Monday, Jan 29, 2007. Born January 28, 1913 in Newington, she was the daughter of Joseph and Rosa Korzon Roiduka. On November 30, 1939, she married Leon RisCassi, attorney and state senator from Hartford. They were together for 47 years until his death on December 1, 1986. Some of her happiest times were summers at Crescent Beach with her husband, children, grandchildren, and friends. She is survived by her two children, Richard RisCassi and his wife Tina of West Hartford, Diane McAndrews and her husband Michael of West Hartford, and her three special grandchildren, whom she adored and was most proud, Nicholas RisCassi, Julianne McAndrews, and Joseph McAndrews. She is also survived by her two nieces, Leila McVinney Clark of Marlborough and Margo McVinney Marvin and her husband David of Putnam. She was predeceased by her four sisters: Mamie Wonsewicz, Stephanie Roiduka, Olive McVinney, and Rose Black. Friends may call at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford on Friday February 2nd, from 5-8 p.m. Funeral services will be Saturday, Feb. 3rd, beginning with the celebration of her funeral mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in St. Helena Church, 30 Echo Lane, West Hartford. Burial will follow in Mount St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. Donations in her memory may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Richard, Diane and your families -- Sorry we couldn't be with you at this sorrowful time but know that you are close to our hearts and minds. Julie's greatest love was for her family and especially her wonderful grandchildren. She was a great lady and a very dear friend to me and Mike. We will miss her very much.
