“ Dear Cynthia, I am saddened to hear about the loss of your mom, my Aunt Kate. Although we lived far from you as a child I have fond memories of the times we did gather all together and wish I could turn back the clock to those days. I hope your memories bring you comfort during this difficult time. Your cousin always, Maureen

“ Such a lovely lady. I always enjoyed talking with her and listening to how much she loved you and Rebecca. When I told Megan, she asked if that was the grandmother who "always walked at the Mall". You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I have so many fond memories of our moms enjoying time together, going to church on Saturday evening 4:00 mass at St. John's and going out to eat. I loved Kay; she was a special lady with her sweet personality and deep love for you Cynthia and your family.
