

Kathleen M. McNamara

February 1, 2014

Kathleen M. McNamara, 74, of West Hartford, died Saturday, at Suffield House, Suffield. Born in Hartford, to Patrick and Margaret McNamara. Kathleen was a graduate of Mt. St. Joseph Academy (57), and held Masters and Bachelor's degrees. Kathleen was a woman of true intelligence and curiosity; she worked as a teacher, writer for the Hartford Times, and the State amongst other things. She would live for 20 years in Ireland before returning to care for her parents. Kathleen is survived by many cousins both in the US and Ireland. The family would like to thank the staff at Suffield House for their exemplary care of Kathleen. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. Burial will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield.

“Kathleen worked for me and the CHOICES programs for several years in the Aging Services Division of the Department of Social Services. Petite and proper, she was an exceptionally efficient and meticulous administrative assistant who was always thoughtful, considerate and devoted. Kathleen always treated me as if I was the most important person in the Department - and expected that others would as well. Her commitment and service were well appreciated. RIP Kathleen and Rise in Glory.”
