Kendra D. Parkington, aged 70, passed away peacefully on July 4, 2024 after a short hospice stay in Colchester, Vermont. Kendra was born in New Haven, CT, raised in W. Hartford, CT (where she will be interred next to her sister and parents) and started raising her own family in Westbrook, CT before moving to Central Vermont for the past 20 plus years to break her cycle of addiction.

With an artist's sense of emotion; she loved her family, dogs, friends, and shopping – most of which was interrupted by her need to make art and focus on herself. She leaves her daughter, Kimberly Jankiewicz, and son, Christopher Parkington; their respective spouses Chris and Victoria; six grandchildren, many friends and an army of people she gratefully says have helped her on her journey.
