

Kristin Billie Anderson

May 8, 1983 - January 31, 2012

Kristin Anderson, 28, of West Hartford, gone too soon, passed away on Tuesday, January 31, 2012. She is survived by her mother, Eileen Anderson and friend, Paul Howard; her father, Dan Anderson and stepmother, Wendy Anderson and her stepfather, George Howard. She also leaves her siblings, Sarah Howard, Matthew Mitchell, Griffin and Sydney Anderson, all of West Hartford. Kristin was the loving granddaughter of Doris and the late William Brickel and Carolyn Anderson. She will be dearly missed by her cousins, Shannon and Courtney Beauchaine, and aunt Janice Beauchaine as well as her closest and dear friend, Justin Aligata. Kristin was born May 8, 1983 in San Diego, CA. She was a gifted artist and loved creating pottery, jewelry, painting and sewing. A free spirit and bright light, she had the ability to touch and help all that she came in contact with. A graduate of Conard High School and a Visual Arts Major at Manchester College, she excelled in sports; swimming competitively with the WAVES swim team and playing organized softball. She also was an avid downhill skier and snowboarder. You could often find her enjoying a hike at the West Hartford Reservoir or sunbathing on a beach. Kristin taught art, weaving and quilt making to children through The Greater Hartford Art's Council. Her work can be viewed on her website: kristinandersonart.com. Her dream was to continue teaching art and working with children. Kristin leaves behind many friends whom she loved dearly, too numerous to count or mention, which truly signifies the wonderful person that she was.

Family will receive friends at Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford, Tuesday, February 7 from 4-8 p.m. A celebration of her life will be held Wednesday February 8, 11 a.m. at the Universalist Church, 433 Fern St., West Hartford. In her memory you may make a donation to: NA World Service, PO Box 999949, Van Nuys, CA 91409, or Parents for a Change, Inc., c/o Mary Marcuccio, 45 Woodruff St., Southington, CT 06489.
