

Larry Lorenzo

February 25, 2005

LORENZO, Lawrence D. Lawrence D. Lorenzo, 54, of Boston, died Friday, February 25, 2005 after a long and courageous battle with diabetes. Born in Hartford, the son of Tina LiVecchi Lorenzo of West Hartford and the late Dominick J. Lorenzo, he was raised in West Hartford and most recently made his home in Boston. Larry attended Robinson School, Northwest Catholic High School, graduated from Holy Cross College in 1972 and received his Masters in business from NYU. He was employed by Legg Mason as a financial advisor and had previously worked for LF Rothschild and Morgan Stanley. Larry truly enjoyed his work and spending time with his nieces and nephews. He was an avid sportsman and spent time at the beach with his family. Besides his mother Tina, he is survived by his brother Robert Lorenzo of West Hartford, sister Leonora Lorenzo of Santa Fe, NM; and his nieces and nephews, Alec, Gioia, Sam and Natalie Lorenzo. The funeral will be Thursday at 9:30 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford, with a Mass of Christian Burial being celebrated at 10 a.m. at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, West Hartford. Burial will follow in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Calling hours are Wednesday from 3-8 p.m. in the funeral home. Donations in his memory may be made to Northwest Catholic High School, 29 Wampanoag Dr., West Hartford, CT 06117 or College of the Holy Cross, 1 College St., Worcester, MA 01610-2395.

“ While he was at DLJ, Larry was my company's Standish, Ayer & Wood salesperson when I first started working. He was extremely helpful to me and spent the time explaining how bonds worked. Over the next six years we developed a great working relationship. I wanted to express my thanks to him for being a great salesperson and teacher. My sincere condolences to his family.##imported-begin##David Horsfall##imported-end##

“ Larry and I were co-workers at 2 securities brokerage firms. I had just talked to Larry in early February at which time he seemed to be taking on life's various challenges with his usual, solid determination. Larry was a true friend, unfailing in his trust and character. I will miss Larry very much as he was so easy to talk to and so understanding of people. My deepest condolences to the Lorenzo family and all who knew this wonderful fellow who made the world a better place than how he found it.##imported-begin##Jim Glanzer##imported-end##

“ To Larry's family, I am sorry for your loss. I have many fond memories of Larry over the last 25 years. He was my contact at Goldman Sachs in the early 1980's and continued to call on me throughout his career. We had many business and personal dealings throughout the years and I will always remember him as just a great person to be around. Very witty and entertaining. Most recently he guest lectured for my finance class at Boston College this past spring and did a great job. I will miss our times together. Again please accept my condolences, I am truly sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Jim Ho##imported-end##

“ Dear Leonora and Bobby,
So sorry to hear about your brother, Larry. I have wonderful Black Point memories at your home sharing delicious pastries in your kitchen. Larry was the 'older borthor' who made sure that we were not doing anything wrong. My sympathy is with you and your Mom.

“ To Larry's family - My deepest sympathies. I knew Larry from St Justin's Church/School days, Northwest Catholic and Holy Cross. He grew up on Canterbury St and I grew up on Thomaston St. in Hartford. He was a great guy and will be missed. I hope you will find comfort in the number of friends he had.###imported-begin###Vincent Kraft###imported-end##

“ To Larry's family and friends,
It is with deep sorrow we write this - Larry was in our wedding in 1988 and was a dear friend for over 25 years. He gave our daughter a pink bear when she was born and she named it Loretta after Larry - it is still her favorite bear of all time after 12 years! He was a true friend and we will miss his crazy stories. Heaven must have been missing an angel!##imported-begin##Annie and Ernie Coughlin##imported-end##
