“ This is Lo Lo Leen. Remember in 1975 I was the hostess. So sorry to hear about Lisa. She was very nice and such a hard worker. I remember one night at the restaurant Lisa and Henry went to the movies and you left me two Chinese symbols to hang up. When you came back you both were laughing so hard and I asked why. You said, You hang them upside down...so funny. We had so much fun. I kept having Henry on my mind today and went on line to see if I could find him and saw this sad news. I am not well either so prob see you in heaven. Save some wonton soup for me. Hugs to the family.

“ I am so very sorry that your lovely mother has left you but I am confident in the Lord's love for her and I hope that you can be consoled in knowing that she is no longer in pain and is loved by Him greatly. I have fond memories of her green house and when she had me help you make wontons! She always smiled. Now her smile is eternally radiant. God bless you all, Monique d'Auteuil
