“ Hi guys - A legend passes - your Mom being the last of a troupe of people who were a cornerstone of my childhood. GLP, Red Oak, LONG car trips to Washington DC every spring vacation being tormented by taunts of "Bethanna Banana" in the third seat of the station wagon, skiing at Blandford. The list is wide-ranging and was packed with fun. When my Mom died, even though I was 54 years old, for 6 months I grappled with the thought that I was an orphan. And you have the concept of a century passing to cope with in addition! Loie was a grand personality and I will remember her laugh and sense of humor always. Lots of love, Beth

“ Flip,
When my mom passed, a friend told me to always keep her in the present. It's comforted me to do so; perhaps it will you as well. My sincere condolences to you and your family.
