

Lois S. Woodruff

September 20, 2008

Lois S. Woodruff, 85, of Bloomfield, formerly of West Hartford, and beloved wife of John H. Woodruff M.D., passed away September 20 2008. She was born Lois Madelyn Stumpp on December 6, 1922 to Anthony and Madelyn Stumpp of Fairfield. After graduating from Bridgeport Hospital School of Nursing, she joined the U.S. Navy as an Ensign during World War II and was stationed in Boston, which is where she met her husband. Highly energetic and a lover of life, Lois lived life to the fullest. She was an avid and accomplished golfer, with 3 holes in one to her name, and was a member of The Country Club of Farmington for many years. She was also an exceptional bowler having been named Junior Champion of her high school she went on to win numerous trophies over the years. Other activities she enjoyed included knitting, bridge, playing the piano, cooking, decorating, reading and spending time with family and friends. A highly caring person, her volunteer activities included the Red Cross Bloodmobile, the Hartford Hospital Women's Auxiliary Group, teaching CPR classes, and much more. Besides her husband, Lois leaves behind her son John, daughters Susan Hanzelko, Linda Woodruff, Anne Stout, sons-in-law David Hanzelko and Mark Stout, daughter-in-law Diane, and her grandchildren, Coryell, Tyler and Eleanor Stout. A Memorial Service will be celebrated in her honor on October 18, at 2 p.m. in the meeting room at Duncaster, in Bloomfield, CT.