Louise worked at the Southern New England Telephone Company until 1958 when she traveled to Europe to join her fiancé Robert Presutti, then stationed in Germany with the United States Airforce. They were married in Rome at the Vatican (St. Peter's). Upon returning to the States, she and her husband purchased a home in Enfield where they had three children; Robert Jr., Lisa, and Richard. She was a devoted mother and homemaker. She is survived by her sister Alice, her brother-in-law Bruno Amato, and her three children.
