“ Lee was the best neighbor we could have asked for. She was quiet and pleasant, independant and caring, an all around nice woman, full of interesting stories. We will miss her very much.##imported-begin##Tom & Carol Karnilowicz##imported-end##

“ We will miss Lee. I lived across the street from her and everyone in the neighborhood knew of her love of cats. My Princess decided she would rather live with Lee than with us after I brought home an abandoned kitten. And we couldn't stop her. She liked Lee better than us. I told Lee not to let her in but she was a softy when it came to cats. When I finally brought Princess home, we made her stay in the house for six months so she wouldn't go back across the street. Finally we let her out and she would visit Lee but she always came home at night. I admired Lee for her independent spirit and loved to listen to her stories. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Michele##imported-end##

“ Lee was a pleasure to have worked with. I loved her stories of Ireland and her great sense of humor.I am sure she is at peace now and probably looking for "Toby", and all the other cats and dogs that she had in her lifetime, because for Lee there was an animal heaven. Also,it was a pleasure to have known Noreen and Jack who were always there for Lee. I still miss her laughter and her very funny wit. Till we meet again, love you Barb.##imported-begin##Barbara Kilmartin##imported-end##
