

Madeline McLaughlin

February 8, 1916 - December 25, 2007

Madeline McLaughlin, 91, died December 25, 2007 in Springfield, VA. Born in Hartford, she was the wife of the late John P. McLaughlin. She had lived in West Hartford since 1965, moving to Virginia in 1998 to be near her daughters. She resided in Aarondale Assisted Living. Madeline worked for the Aetna retiring in 1981. She attended St. Thomas the Apostle Church for over 30 years. She is survived by her two daughters; Lynn McLaughlin of Alexandria, VA and Marie E. Koontz and son-in-law Lowell of Falls Church, VA. Her grandsons, Michael Koontz and his wife Julie, and John Koontz also survive her. Funeral services were held in Virginia. Friends are invited to join her family for graveside services in St. Mary's Cemetery, Burnside Ave. East Hartford on Thursday January 3, 2008 at 9:00 a.m. Online messages of remembrance and sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Lynn--- I read of your mother's passing too late to be able to make it to the services, but I wanted to let you know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I hope that her passing was gentle and has left you with many loving memories. I certainly have my share of fine remembrances of you and your family from our college days, and have truly regretted losing touch with you. If you get a chance some day, will you drop me an e-mail with your address and phone number, so we can re-connect? In the meantime, my loving sympathy to you and your family.##imported-begin##Laura Shiembob##imported-end##

“ Dear Marie and Family,
Please accept my sincere sympathy on the passing of your mother and grandmother. Marie, I have many fond memories of being in your home on Fern Street with our dear NWCHS Class of '67 friends, Joanne Warner Fyfe and Molly Rees Gavin. Your mother and father were always so welcoming and kind to us. I am sure you have many wonderful memories for a lifetime. May she rest in eternal peace.##imported-begin##Theresa Ricciuti Ganci##imported-end##
