

Margaret W. Carabillo

June 2, 1948 - June 27, 2015

Margaret W. Carabillo of West Hartford,, CT, beloved wife of 37 years of Vincent J. Carabillo passed away on June 27, 2015 at Hartford Hospital after a long, courageous battle against brain cancer. Margie was born on June 2, 1948 in Northampton, MA to the late John R. Winter, Jr. of Utica, NY and Susan L. Winter of Syracuse, NY now of West Hartford, CT. In addition to her husband and mother, she is survived by a sister Katharine S. Winter of S. Glastonbury, CT and numerous other family members and friends. Margie was a graduate of Walnut Hill School for the Performing Arts in Natick, MA where she was class president as well as Green Mountain College in Poultney, VT with a degree in English. She was a gifted water colorist who exhibited her works in many juried shows in the area and sold numerous paintings privately. We would like to thank all of the dedicated doctors, nurses, PCAs, therapists, technicians, etc. at Hartford Hospital for their kindness, compassion and care. It helped to make this terrible ordeal a little more bearable. Anyone who would like to make a contribution in Margaret's memory may do so to the Helen & Harry Gray Cancer Center and mailed to: Fund Development, Hartford Hospital, 80 Seymour Street, Hartford, CT 06106. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 10:00AM on Monday, July 6 at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford, CT. Burial will follow at Fairview Cemetery in West Hartford. Calling hours will be Sunday, July 5 at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford 4:00 -7:00. Online condolences or messages may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.c om. Margie was a kind and gentle soul with a pure heart who always tried to make the world a better place. She was loved by all who knew her well. The poet Edna St. Vincent Milay wrote: "The answers quick and keen, the honest look, the laughter, the love -they are gone. I know, but I do not approve. More precious was the light in your eyes than all the roses in the world; Gently they go, the beautiful, the tender, the kind; Quietly they go, the intelligent, the witty, the brave. I know, but I do not approve; and I am not resigned."
