“ So sorry to learn of Peggy's death. We were friends and classmates at HPHS. Have fond memories of our times together then and later at various reunions. She got me a job at a diner in East Hartford when we both were 16. After 2+ weeks, we were fired for being late too often (6 am was too early for us as teens!). Enjoyed seeing together the great Ella Fitzgerald with Oscar Peterson trio; got their autographs. Accidentally, Peggy burned a tiny hole in Ms. Fitzgerald's lace dress with a cigarette. We beat it out of the Bushnell when we realized it. Ah, the memories. She was gifted with people. I will miss her. May the Good Lord bless and comfort you all. Grace Fleet Bates
