

Marge Skau

December 24, 2020

Margaret (Walker) Skau, 90, of West Hartford, wonderful wife of the former Ralph E. Skau entered into eternal peace on December 24, 2020, surrounded by her family. Marge was born in Plainville, CT on November 6, 1930, the daughter of the late Martin and Laura (Tallis) Walker. She loved to paint, sew, read, do jigsaw puzzles and be with her family. Marge was a member of the Charter Oak Chapter of the Historical Society of Early American Decoration. She was a graduate of Plainville High School, class of 1948. Marge is predeceased by her son Robert T. Skau. She is survived by her son, Paul W. Skau and his wife Maureen Glass Skau of West Hartford, her daughter Lauren Skau Taylor and her husband Colin Shem Taylor of Wethersfield, and her sister Loretta Smith of Southington, CT. Marge also has three beautiful grandchildren, Katie and Dallas Skau, and Dave Skau; as well as nieces and nephews. Besides her husband, Ralph, Marge is also predeceased by her sisters Mildred Michaud, Norma Neuhausser, and brother Robert Walker. Marge will be remembered as a friend to so many. The Skau family would like to thank Companions & Homemakers and Seasons Hospice, especially Scott, Ethan and Donna for their ongoing care of our mom while she was at home. Immense appreciation goes to Lucy Lawrence, caregiver, for her extraordinary care and compassion in the final months of Marge's life. The funeral and burial will be private and held at the comfort of the family. Donations in Marge's memory may be made to the American Heart Association or to Our Companions, Animal Rescue & Sanctuary.
