

Maria Kleppinger Kovolski

January 20, 1946 - December 21, 2014

Maria (Kleppinger) Kovolski, passed away Dec. 21, 2014 after a brief illness. Maria was born on Jan. 20, 1946 in Philadelphia to the late Anna and Harrison Kleppinger. She moved to West Hartford in 1960, where she graduated from Conard High School. Maria went to work for Society for Saving, and stayed in banking for the next forty years, making many friends throughout the community. Having recently retired, Maria was fulfilling her dream of relaxing, reading books, and traveling. Amongst her family and friends Maria was legendary for her chocolate chip cookies, which could not be replicated and will be sorely missed. Maria was a good friend, partner and wife to Michael "Peter" Kovolski for over 30 years. She is also survived by her brother Robert Kleppinger of Bristol, her two stepchildren; Jennifer Kovolski (Roy) in New Hampshire, and Michael Kololski (Valerie) in North Carolina, and three grandchildren; Bryce, Kyndra, and Madeleine. Maria's family would like to thank the staff at The Reservoir for all the care and support they provided her in her time of need. Friends are invited to join Maria's family at the celebration of her Mass of Christian Burial on Tuesday Dec. 30th in St. Peter Claver Church, 47 Pleasant St. West Hartford at 10 a.m. Burial will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery Bloomfield. Calling hours are Monday Dec. 29 from 6-8 p.m. in the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford, CT. Donations in her memory may be made to the American Cancer Society or the American Diabetes Association.
