

Marilyn Joan Lee

July 4, 1924 - June 24, 2010

Marilyn Lee, educator, Dies at 85

Marilyn Joan Lee, a former New York City teacher, went to her eternal rest on June 24, 2010 after a brief illness. She was 85.

Marilyn Joan Nash was born July 4, 1924 in Elmhurst, NY. Her family moved to Staten Island, NY where she attended St. John Villa Academy. She was a 1946 graduate of Notre Dame College, now part of St. John's University. She married Thomas F. Lee who passed away August 23, 1981, and is survived by her daughters, Eileen Lee John Anderson, Arlington VA, Virginia Lee Robin Grossman, Washington, CT, Peggy Rice Chris Rice, Simsbury, CT and Maureen Lee West Hartford, CT, grandchildren, Thomas Anderson, Tyler Anderson, J.T. Weber, Timothy Anderson, Kyle Weber, Connor Rice, Mackenzie Rice and Meghan Rice. She was preceded in death by her siblings Joseph Nash, Virginia Mackey and Margaret O'Dowd.

Mrs. Lee retired from the New York City School system following a thirty five-year career as a teacher. In her retirement, she pursued her interests in travel and volunteered with several charitable organizations. In 2000, she moved from Staten Island to West Hartford. She was a devoted mother and delighted in the many talents and accomplishments of her grandchildren. The family appreciates the loving care provided by the McLean Hospice.

A Mass in celebration of her life will be conducted on Monday, June 28, 2010 at 10:00 am in the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle 872 Farmington Ave. in West Hartford, burial will follow in Fairview Cemetery, West Hartford. In lieu of flowers, friends may honor her memory by making a donation to a charitable organization of their choice.