In addition to her beloved children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, Marion is survived by her dearly loved brother, Richard Loftus and his wife Lois, of Pittsfield MA, and her sister-in-law Eleanor Peltier of Lenox MA, as well as many nieces and nephews. Besides her parents, Marion was predeceased by her oldest son, Andrew, in 1984 and her grandson, Paul Rowean Jr., in 1985. “ To The Merritt Family, We share in the understanding and sadness of such a loss to your entire family, and what this will mean for all in the years to come. Marion created an amazing legacy; the riches of which will be revealed in the generations. We pray for enduring strength and comfort in the promises of our Lord for the life ahead of each of us where we are fully restored in His presence.
Our lives are enriched in the friendship of Paul and Judy, and our next door neighbors Marty and Patti, Andrew and Peter. Thank you Marion for giving them to us.

“ Gladys and Bob Dunn extend their sympathy to the Merritt Family. We value highly our many pleasant associations with her. Autographed copies of some of her writing are treasured possessions of ours. It was an honor to have her as a devoted Hall parent. Her support when we were representatives to England was greatly appreciated. Her outstanding family was important to her. When she presented us with a copy of "Uphill Both Ways" she wrote "My thanks for having been so special to Andrew. Love, Marion" We're grateful we knew her and will always have fond memories of her.

“ To the Merritt Family,
Ray and I just received the sad news.
We will always remember Marion with that beautiful smiling face and wonderful hug that she greeted us with upon our every visit to OLS. Whether she had a moment to share or an hour, she always made us feel so welcome. To us, she was "The" OLS Mom!
We will miss seeing her but will be forever grateful that we had the pleasure of knowing such a dynamic person.
We know her star will shine brightly within all of you and everyone that she touched forever.

“ George & Family

There are no words to describe how we feel at the loss of Marion. What a remarkable person, she accomplished so much and was so inspiring. We treasure our memories of lunches at The Vineyards, the catching up on family events, the twinkle in her eye when she would tell George - "you'd better eat a good lunch - I'm not cooking tonight." We are so privileged to have known her and will never forget how warmly she greeted us. How an every-now-and-then e-mail would brighten my day at the office. How much our friendship meant. We will miss her tremendously.

Sincerely -##imported-begin##Sandy & Fritz Schellhase##imported-end##
