

Marisol Serrano

January 2, 2020

Marisol (Mary) Serrano departed this Earth on January 2nd, 2020 following a strong fight with a long illness.

Marisol was born on August 3, 1971 in Yabucoa, Puerto Rico. In due time she moved to Hartford, Connecticut, where she spent the rest of her life. Those familiar to Mary knew her passion was being a caretaker. She enjoyed taking care of her patients, family members and friends. Mary's doors were always open to others and she assured that her home was a safe, welcoming place. Marisol had a smile like no other! As beautiful as her smile was, her heart was even more beautiful. She was an amazing mother and wife as her family meant the absolute world to her. Another love of Marisol's was the beach. She absolutely loved visiting the beach and spending time with family. Her happy place was definitely her birthplace, Puerto Rico.

Marisol is survived by a host of family; her parents, Carlos Serrano and Maria Davila; her grandmother, Paula Davila; her three siblings, Carlos Serrano, Angie Serrano, and Adalberto Serrano; her five children; Alexander Torres, Barbara Ramos; spouse Michael Ramos, Anthony Rivera, Xavier Rivera; fur baby Tiny Rivera and lastly her granddaughter Nevaeh'a Torres. She is also survived by the love of her life Elias (Chino) Rivera. Marisol was predeceased by her grandfather Manuel Davila.
