

Marjorie A. Gorman

April 21, 1927 - January 2, 2012

Marjorie A. Gorman, 84, of West Hartford, beloved wife of William L. Gorman, died Monday January 2, 2012 at West Hartford Health and Rehabilitation after a brief illness. She was born on April 21, 1927 in Weymouth, MA the daughter of the late Harold and Katherine Dougherty Hamilton. She grew up in Braintree, MA and met her husband Bill in kindergarten, beginning a relationship that would span their lives together including 60 years of marriage. Marjorie treasured her summers on Cape Cod in Harwich Port, never missing one including riding out the 1944 hurricane. In addition to her husband she is survived by her three children; Mary and her husband Richard Hadjian of North Andover, MA; Barbara and her husband Alan Rosenberg of Simsbury, CT and Robert Gorman and his wife Carla of Raleigh, NC. She dearly loved her grandchildren Gregory and Sarah Hadjian and Emily and Molly Rosenberg. In addition, she was predeceased by her three brothers Harold Hamilton, Robert Hamilton and Howard Hamilton. Funeral services will be Friday January 6, 2012 from the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford, CT at 9:15 am. The Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 am at the Church of St. Peter Claver, West Hartford. Burial will immediately follow in the Fairview Cemetery, West Hartford. Friends may call Thursday from 4-7 pm at the Molloy Funeral Home. Memorial donations may be made in her memory to the VNA HealthCare Hospice located at 103 Woodland St. Hartford, CT 06105. “ What a great picture of Aunt Marjorie! Just how I remember her -all put together and flashing that beautiful smile of hers. My deepest sympathies to you all. I'll miss spotting her white baseball cap under the umbrella on the beach & her donations to Tenley's and my can-collecting summers. The Cape will never be the same. Thoughts and prayers to you Uncle Billy and your family. With Love,##imported-begin##Karen##imported-end##

“ Uncle Billy - my deepest sympathy to you, Mary, Barbara, Bobby and families. I have such wonderful memories dating back to when I was just a little girl...seeing you at Grammy's - especially at holiday gatherings. Apparently Marjorie used to iron my pajamas when I was small ?!- I'm sure nobody else ever did that! Also, the time I spent with you when I was at Uconn-many laughs and a lot of fun. Aunt Marjorie was special to me and I will always keep her in my heart and in my prayers. My love to all...Marcia###imported-begin###Marcia###imported-end##

“ Our family was sad to hear of Aunt Marjorie's passing. Most of all, we will miss her smiling face and impromptu oceanside chats in Harwichport. Our annual trip to the Cape will be less sunny with her gone. Uncle Billy, Mary, Barbara and Bobby you are in our prayers and thoughts. “ Marjorie was always so upbeat, always willing & interested to spend time and as much time as you had, to talk story.

In my mind Marjorie was ageless, in a Dick Clark kinda way. Healthy and happy, bright and witty, all the while doing it with elegance & grace. Whether I bumped into her on Ocean Ave or at the beach she always carrying the Sun with her. She will forever be missed especially during those quite times on the Cape.

I look forward to joining her in the big beach chair circle in the sky one day. Until then a part of what made the Cape so special to me has been lost forever.

Love to Billy and the family.
