

Marjorie Brier Greene

June 24, 2006

Marjorie Brier Greene died peacefully at home on June 24, 2006. Born in 1912, she grew up in Boston with her sisters, the late Florence Ogilvie of Concord, MA., and the late Madeline Young of Weston, MA. After graduating from Framingham State Teachers College, Marjorie taught home economics in Richford, VT, where she met her husband, the late Foster C. Greene. Their first home was in New York City, where her first two sons were born. The family returned to the Boston area, moving to Wellesley, MA, where her third son was born. Four decades ago, they moved again, this time to West Hartford, CT. Marjorie devoted her life to her children and family. She enjoyed happy friendships as an avid bridge player and was a member of the garden club. She leaves her three sons, Edward, Foster, and William, and five granddaughters. Funeral services will be Thursday, July 6, at 11:00 a.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation www.marchofdimes.com
