

Marjorie Hager

November 20, 2006

HAGER, Marjorie Marjorie Hager, 83, of Hartford, beloved wife of Robert Hager, died Monday, November 20, 2006 at home. Born in Norwich, England, the daughter of Alfred and Florence Porter, she served in the British Army during World War II as a Sergeant for the British ATS in the Financial Corp. In 1945, she married Robert and they moved to the United States in 1946. She raised her two daughters, and was very active in their lives, as a brownie leader, PTA, and girl scouts. Marjorie worked as a manager of the flower department for G. Fox, she was a banquet hostess at the Shoreham Hotel, and retired after ten years as a recreation director for the Cerebral Palsy Association. She loved gardening, reading, crossword puzzles, knitting, and the Rose Garden at Elizabeth Park. Marjorie was always available for support, guidance, and advice for her family. Her wisdom will be missed. In addition to her husband of 61 years, Marjorie is survived by her daughter, Elizabeth and her husband Richard of Norwalk; a son-in-law, Donald Ranger of West Hartford; her four grandchildren, Christina and her husband William Lamphere IV of West Hartford, Michael and his wife Darby of West Hartford, Alexander and Katherine Pachkovsky of Norwalk. She is also survived by her cat Dillon. Her daughter Jane Ranger predeceased her. Friends and family may call on Friday, November 24, from 6-8 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Funeral services and burial will be private. On line expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com
