“ Marge was my best friend. I met her shortly after she moved into Bradenton. We played in many a tournament, talked endlessly about bridge and her cat, Murphy, and my cat Rajii. She took care of me when I was ill and one time dragged me into the hospital when I was so sick but refusing to go. She said "I've had it!. You're going, NOW!" I loved her with all my heart.

“ Marge welcomed me into the family so many years ago and we got along famously. We shared many adventures with Marge at the lead as well as many quiet hours simply enjoying the company. She was kind, generous, strong, and truly a hearty Mainer. It was really no surprise that she embarked on a grand voyage of the South Pacific, but it was a complete shock that she didn't make it back.

We are all saying "I can't believe it - what are we going to do without Marge?" She is off on yet another adventure but this time without us. We are selfish to, but we will miss her just the same.
