“ Dear Joan, Patty and Diane,
My mother was Mabel Monaghan Caywood, one of Marge's friends growing up in Hartford. We had the pleasure of getting to know your mother after my mother passed away in April of '09. This past June we got to visit your mom and had a delightful time looking at pictures while remembering their childhood. Your aunt Thelma, Marge, my aunt Eleanor and my mom seemed to have had a great time together. Marge was a blessed and special friend. You and your families are in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Carol & Tim Herring##imported-end##

“ We lived next door to Marge and Walter for 7 years on Foxcroft Road 1987-1993. After moving to Steele Road, I frequently saw Marge taking her long walks through the neighborhood. I always enjoyed chatting with her. Always upbeat and kind, she was a wonderful person. Lee and I send our condolences to all of Marge's family.##imported-begin##Ellen and Lee Blair##imported-end##
