“ What a blessing it is that Ms Marjorie Williams had the opportunity to spend 98 years with her loving family. I've had the pleasure of knowing her since 2000 and she was a hard working lady that would do anything for her family. Even though that her soul has returned to the Lord and her body is at rest, I see her loving and caring spirit every day within her granddaughter Melissa (my beautiful wife).

Thank you Brian for such kind words. You are right - my Mom was truly a Blessing to all of us. Her family was the MOST important thing to her. She adored all of us. Melissa is right her smile would light up a room. She loved all that life gave her. She will forever live in all of us. Joyce

“ Mom - I'm missing you so much. I know I've told you a million times, but I want to Thank you again for everything you taught me, and the unconditional love you have always giving me throughout my lifetime. I miss all of the fun times we had together. I pray that you are doing well in heaven. I look forward to seeing you again. Until then please say Hello to the rest of our family in Heaven. You will forever be in my heart. Because of you - I am who I am today. I hope I have done everything you wanted me to do with your wishes. I think you would have been happy with your service. It was very nice. Hal Whiting wrote you an absolutely “Beautiful” poem and read it for you. The flowers everyone sent were so pretty. Wages Funeral Home in Georgia, Malloy Funeral Home in West Hartford, and Fairview Cemetary were all so helpful to us. Even though my heart is aching that you aren't here; I know you are in a better place and that gives me great solace right now. Our family and friends have been such so kind to me during this most difficult time. Life is truly precious. I know God has a plan for all of us. In the meantime I will live how you would want me too; in your memory. I will continue to do everything I can; to make you proud of me. The bond we have between us is real and no one will ever take that away from me. I Love you Mom. You were truly the BEST Mom EVER. Thank you for everything.

“ Ms. Joyce, I am so terribly heartbroken over the loss of your beautiful mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Thank you for allowing me to post this poem, for it has been written in many ways.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am the budding flowers of spring, Sweet summer's promise that they bring.*

I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the crisp cooling autumn rain.

*I am gentle winds that blow, I am the sparkling flakes of snow.
When you waken to dawns first light, I am the song of birds in flight.
The Robin, the Dove, and Blue Jay, The joyful sounds that fill the day.*

*From the grass glistening with dew, I am there smiling at you.
I am the sunset of orange and gold, With hues of mauve and magenta bold.*

I am the stars that shine so bright, With mystical magic through the night.

*I am the ocean's soothing wave, I am the sea shells that you save.
I am the lake where diamonds glint, I am the clouds of sky blue tint.
My love is there wherever you go, In the sun that shines and the rivers that flow.*

So, do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there, I did not die.

I'm sure all of you will keep beautiful memories of her. May she forever stay in your hearts.

“ I met Marge in 2013 when she came to Atlanta to live with her loving daughter. I know that she meant so much to Joyce and could tell they had a very special bond. I'm so glad they were able to spend the last years of her life together. She was a sweet lady, and I know she brought so much joy to peoples live. You are all in my thoughts and prayers and I'm so glad Granny is at home with God in Heaven now.

“ Aunt Marge was an amazing woman with a heart of gold! I always enjoyed each time visited my mom and it broke my mothers heart when neither of them were able to fly. Aunt Marge was so down to earth and easy to talk to, my daughters and I loved her dearly. My heart felt sorrow goes out to my cousins and their families but rest assure that she was welcomed with open arm as she entered the Kingdom of Heaven. May peace be with her and all of the family 🙏
