“ Dear Jack, Janet, Myron, and Joe,

You have been in my thoughts and prayers since I learned of Martha's passing. Although I can't be at the service tomorrow, my caring thoughts will be with you. I will be rereading correspondence I had with Martha the past few years and remembering the many conversations we had when I came for my quarterly advising and tax preparation. The joy Martha had sharing stories of choir practices and family preparations for holidays, her endless patience helping me understand the quarterly report, and our discussions of current events are just a few of the memories I have. I will always be thankful that my brother met you, chose you for his financial advisors, and that I became part of the More for Less family. Martha truly lived a life of service for her clients and we were enriched because Martha was a part of our lives. She will always have a special place in my heart.

With Deepest Sympathy,

Anne Campbell

“ Martha was a very special lady. We always felt that we were not only clients, but friends as well. It was always a pleasure meeting with her, and she always had that special ability to comfort us during unstable financial times. She really was one of a kind and she will be missed. I spent 4 weeks at the house addressing Martha's "honey do list" a few years ago, as she told me she had a "honey" but he doesn't do the list. I really enjoyed those days, making her happy as the list was being completed.

Jack and family, please accept our sincere condolences on Martha's passing.

“ So many years passed but I never forgot Bristol, John Jennings School and our class of '55. Martha was a dear childhood friend, along with Judy Krampitz, Janice Burrill and others. I recall many happy hours playing in the neighborhood, especially on the old trolley car parked near Martha's house. We were told our class was one of the brightest (included David Silver, Terry Belanger, Judy and Janice, etc.) to graduate from JJJ and certainly Martha was one of the truly exceptional ones; I still recall her mathematical skills and her love of music. I lived in many places before returning to CT some 20 years ago, even living in West Hartford. Only wish I had crossed paths with her at some point.
I easily recognized her face in the obit photo; she barely aged to me. How very accomplished she was!
Sincerest sympathies to her family and circle of friends.
