

Mary Ann LaFleur

October 11, 2014

Mary Ann LaFleur, 85, a long-time resident of West Hartford, passed away on Oct. 11, 2014 at Southington Care Center, where she had resided for the last five years. She will be remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother, who approached life's pleasures and challenges with kindness, dignity and grace. Mary Ann was the widow of W. Eugene LaFleur, to whom she was married for 46 years. She leaves three daughters, Claire LaFleur Hall and her husband Stephen of Cheshire, Denise LaFleur Reid and her husband Gerald of Burlington, Rosemarie Bach and her husband Bradley of West Hartford, and seven grandchildren, Courtney and Nicholas Hall; Shannon and Kelly Reid; and Allison, Tyler and Jason Bach. She is also survived by her brother, John Denis Reardon and his wife, Patricia, of Windsor; a sister, Carol Akialis of Ohio, and many cousins, nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by many beloved relatives and friends. Mary Ann was born Nov. 8, 1928, the eldest child of the late G. Emmett and Mary Reardon. She graduated from Russell Sage College and worked as an executive secretary for Connecticut Mutual Insurance, before starting a family. A devoted mother and grandmother, she took much joy in her family's accomplishments. Both she and her husband were well-informed people and avid readers, who bestowed a love of learning on their children and grandchildren. Mary Ann was a woman of strong faith, and a communicant of the Church of St. Peter Claver in West Hartford. She and her husband met through Catholic Graduates, where they made many good friends. They enjoyed dancing, dining out and spending time with family. Mary Ann also enjoyed knitting, needlework, listening to music and, more recently, she had developed an enjoyment of painting. She vacationed regularly in Boston for many years, and enjoyed memorable trips to San Francisco and New Orleans with her husband. Known for having the luck of the Irish, one of the many highlights of her life was winning two new cars in a contest on WTIC radio in the 1980s. A calling hour will be from 8:45 to 9:45 a.m. Saturday at the Church of St. Peter Claver, 47 Pleasant St. West Hartford, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. Molloy Funeral Home in West Hartford is in charge of arrangements. The family wishes to thank the nurses and staff at Southington Care Center, who delivered such compassionate care and brought joy to MaryAnn's final years.

Memorial donations may be made to: Southington Care Center; St. Peter Claver Church; or to Russell Sage College.
