“ Mary was a dear friend of mine for many years and I'm sorry I'm not in CT to go to the funeral. We had some great times, Day, May, Tom and me.

I will miss her

“ I am so sorry that I am not in Connecticut to give you my condolences in person Mary was a great friend and a wonderful person With all that she went through in her life and particularly this past year, she never complained and always had her acute sense of humor. I shall miss her terribly. I know that she is now in a much better place and certainly at peace. Levette C. Perkins
