

Mary Horvath Navin

January 1, 1918 - March 14, 2012

Mary Horvath Navin, 94, of West Hartford, the wife of the late Thomas Navin, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, March 14, 2012. Born in Torrington, she made her home in West Hartford for almost 60 years. She was a communicant of St. Thomas the Apostle Church and her last years of employment were spent in the cafeteria of Northwest Catholic High School until her retirement at the age of 80. She will always be remembered as a loving grandmother who spent endless hours trying to keep up with her grandchildren. She is survived by her four children; Thomas Navin of Vero Beach, FL, Marguerite Benson of Newington, Barbara Navin of Avon, Frank Navin and his wife Sandy of Marlborough, MA; three grandchildren, Michele Amenta, Gerry Amenta and his wife Betsy, Kristin Losee and her husband Jenner; her great granddaughter, Claire Nobel Losee; and four sisters, Betty Horan, Francis Boccio, Ottilia Reale and Ella Jagielski. She is predeceased by her brothers Joseph of Granby and Alador of Florida and a sister Helen of Bridgeport. The funeral will be Monday, March 19, beginning with visitation at 10:30 a.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford, followed by a funeral service at 11:30 at the funeral home. Burial will in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. The family would like to thank the staff at St. Mary Home for their compassionate care. Donations in her memory may be made to St. Mary Home, 2021 Albany Ave., West Hartford, CT 06117. “ I will always fondly remember Mary Navin as a friendly, always smiling, and dedicated member of the outstanding cafeteria staff at Northwest Catholic High School. She was just one of those people that brightened up everyone's day just by being herself. God bless you, Mary. John Shukie NWC faculty 1976-2007###imported-begin###John C Shukie###imported-end###
