“ I am so sad to hear of Mary’s passing. I talked to her in July, but unfortunately was away for her service. She was a wonderful person and was always so good to me. We worked together at The Travelers, and when she retired in 1985, she trained me for her job. We stayed in touch all these years, and I will always treasure the beautiful things she gave me and our many visits together. Love you, Mary!

“ I fondly remember every holiday spent with "Aunt" Mary & Uncle Frank especially Christmas dinner with the family at her home. Such fun memories of the sweet & kind woman I had the pleasure to enjoy knowing

“ I met Mary when we both worked on the same floor of The Travelers, 54 years ago. We remained friends ever since. Mary was always gracious, always gentle, always kind and always grateful for calls or visits. I never saw her be uncharitable or mean-spirited. I thought she was indestructible and we were planning another visit (I live in Scotland, UK, but visit the US annually) later this year. Mary had a strong religious belief which brought her comfort, and I am told that she died peacefully, which in turn is a comfort to those of us who loved her. Rest in peace, my very dear friend.
