“ Dear Laura, Lynn & John- My name is Marsha Kochiss. I am writing on behalf of my dad, Marshall Kochiss, of Milford, CT. We just learned of your mom's passing and wanted to extend our heartfelt condolences for your loss. Dad is approaching the age of 90 and, unfortunately, will not be able to attend her services. We are with you in spirit.

My dad was the Best Man at your parents' wedding. He wanted you to know that your dad and mom were dear friends and he truly misses them. Your father became a childhood friend back at St. Charles School in Bridgeport. Dad continues to share with me so many wonderful memories and stories that remain so vivid to him, even at his age.

We pray that you will find solace through your faith, family and friends at this difficult time in your lives. God Bless.

Love to all, Marshall Kochiss (and daughter, Marsha), 59
