“ I have such fond memories of my Aunt Mary, my father's sister. She was a truly great lady and I am so grateful for the untold number of trips she and Uncle Mac made to see my father at the Soldier's Home in Holyoke, Massachusetts in the final few years of his life. I hope to reconnect with my cousin Bill - I am deeply sorry for the death of your mom. It has been far too long and I look forward to hearing from you.

“ I'm for the loss of my aunt. Her husband, Justin and my father were brothers. I feel they are together again. Rest in God's hands.
