

Mary Bland Sullivan

December 16, 1919 - November 5, 2013

Mary Bland Sullivan, 93, of West Hartford, died Tuesday, November 5, 2013, at her home. Born in West Hartford, the daughter of the late Robert and Mary (Bresnahan) Sullivan, she was one of nine children and made her home in West Hartford her entire life. Mary Bland graduated from Trinity College in Washington DC., and retired from the Aetna after a long career. Mary Bland was a devout Catholic and longtime parishioner of St. Mark the Evangelist Church. She was an avid bridge player and loved traveling. She was a member of Wampanoag Country Club and the Town and County Club. Mary Bland was a strongly independent woman, always impeccably dressed, radiating warmth and intelligence to the many people whose lives she touched. She was the beloved aunt to 20 nieces and nephews, especially Suzanne Bailey-Gates with whom she shared a home for the past several years. Robert Maxwell a nephew, and Mary Elizabeth Kelly a cousin with whom she was very close. A special thanks to her caregivers Terri, Ucella, and Winsome and her wonderful neighbors the Fredette family for all the friendship and care they provided. The funeral will be Saturday at 9:30 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in St. Mark the Evangelist Church, West Hartford. Burial will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. Calling hours are Friday from 3-6 p.m. at the funeral home. Donations in her memory may be made to St. Mark the Evangelist Church.
