“ Dear Jack,

My heart and soul goes out to you and your son at this time. Ever since your wife became ill I had prayed for you and your wife every day. I thought she was getting better for I had not heard any news in a long time. I was surprise and sad to hear that your wife had left you and went to be with "God". We will never know why "God" has choose her to be with him. Keep your wife alive by talking about the joy she brought to your life. I'm sorry I could not be with you at her memorial service for my son Quintin, Dante,Keiko we were all out of town. If you ever need a shoulder or someone to listen or even a hug I will always be there for you. Even if its 2,4 8 years from now. I wish I had known your wife. Just to let you know my sons Quintin and Dante are there for you also. Even Keiko. Hope to see you soon for we all miss you. My prayers are with you always. “ I had the opportunity to work with MaryAnn in the play "Reckless" at Park Road Playhouse. She was warm, funny, caring, and strong-willed. When the show was over she gave me a card, which I still have out on a shelf at home. It has a quote by Theodore Roethke which reads: "What we need are more people who specialize in the impossible."

I'm so sorry that we've lost one of them.##imported-begin##Rayah Martin##imported-end##

“ MaryAnn and I worked together on "An Impeccable Larceny" at the Theatre Guild of Simsbury in 2008 and we had several memorable scenes that were marked by MaryAnn's considerable talent. She was an excellent actress, a passionate performer and a lovely lady. We shared many nice conversations about acting and her visits to Vermont to see her son. She will be missed and I am grateful to have known and worked with her.###imported-begin###Jason Dasey###imported-end##
