“ I feel so saddened over Maureen's death. From the minute I met her we "connected" as she did with so so many people. She was gifted with compassion, genuine kindness, sincerity, a true gentleness of spirit and wanted others to know the Lord through these gifts. She had a "listening heart" and wanted only ALL GOOD for everyone. I connected with her on a deep level always. I can't believe I will never see her smile and receive her hugs and concern for whom I was as a person. Whenever I put on purple, I know she will smile...her favorite and my favorite color. I can still see her come in to St.P&A one summer day with a gorgeous smile and a simply beautiful RED HAT/tilted to the side. I know she is with Ryan and others she missed. The Lord has given her the PEACE she was so long searching for. We shared our stories of our former convent days and even knew at some deep level, we missed that life. I touch an angel she gave me awhile back, each night, and whisper her name and ask her for guidance and wisdom. She is a part of my soul. I know she is with me always. I pray that I can emanate to others the "fine loving god-like ways" she radiated. I know Jack will miss her and I pray for him and her sister Peg, whom she loved so so dearly. I hear her singing in the sky with that lovely melodious voice. I send her a hug and pray that she will be guiding me throughout my days here. Love ya, Mo and miss you!!! Thanks for all of your love and help and GRACE-FILLED WAYS you gave to me. Ms. Sally Salvatrice E. Mazzarella##imported-begin##Salvatrice E. Mazzarella##imported-end##

“ Maureen was one of the most kind, generous, loving, funny, and spiritual people I have known in my entire life. When I first joined St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church, she always went out of her way to make me feel welcome and befriended. Maureen's steadfast faith, encouragement of others, gentleness, and wonderful hugs have permanently touched my life, and I will remember her forever. I thank God for bringing her beautiful presence into my life. Heaven is indeed blessed. To Jack and all of Maureen's family, my deepest condolences and prayers. And Mo, I love you - may God bless you with his peace and love always. Till we meet again.###imported-begin##Marie Ferrantino###imported-end##

“ I was honored to work with Maureen for several years until her retirement from Moore Medical. I have never met a kinder, more generous individual. She celebrated everyone's birthdays with cards, gifts, balloons and flowers. She loved flowers. We anxiously awaited her signature chocolate chip cookies at Christmas. Maureen made a tremendous difference in the lives of those of us who were fortunate enough to know her. She will be sadly missed.###imported-begin##Melinda Bliss###imported-end##

“ Maureen was a gift to those who knew her. Her life was truly a celebration of God's blessings to his children. Maureen lived the life that Christ calls us to live, but so many struggle to achieve. She wholeheartedly gave to others what Christ asks us to give; love, compassion, gentleness and mercy. Maureen will always be remembered by those whose lives she blessed and touched so deeply. I thank God that I was one who was honored to know her and remember her with thoughts of friendship and love.##imported-begin##Barbara LaRosa##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss, Maureen helped me through some difficult times when my sister Irene was diagnosed with breast cancer and I will always be grateful. She will, I'm certain, be missed by many as she had such a loving heart. You are all in my prayers and thoughts. Helen Pawlak##imported-begin##Helen Pawlak##imported-end##

“ Auntie Mo was one of the classiest ladies I have ever known. From the moment I met her, she was the sweetest, nicest, kindest person I had ever met. Her gentleness and kindness will never be forgotten. Her words were eloquent and full of wisdom. Truly a woman of God, I know she is with Ryan and Pete walking the streets of Heaven. All three of them were great examples of people who were true and faithful servants of God. My deepest condolences to Jack, Peg, John, Kay, Bill, Elena and all of the Kevan-O'Neil family. You are all special friends to my children of I. We pray for God to comfort you in the loss of this tremendous lady. I'm sorry we cannot be with you this weekend, but you are forever in our hearts. God bless you all. Love, Jan Poirier###imported-begin##Jan Poirier###imported-end##

“ I was so saddened by the news of Maureen's passing. Those who were fortunate enough to have had Maureen touch their lives for even a moment, know of her kindness and warmth. I treasure every memory I have of her, especially the way she had of making days seem so much brighter. I'll miss her hugs, and her gentle nature. A great loss for this world - a wonderful addition to God's angels. My heartfelt sympathies to her family & friends.###imported-begin##Catherine Wishart-White###imported-end##

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Maureen at Moore Medical for about 5 years. Out of the many many people in my life that I've had the opportunity to meet, she was the most sincere, generous, caring, loving, thoughtful, dedicated souls that I will probably ever know.

She always had time to share a good word and seemed to have an endless knowledge of experiences in so many different areas. I enjoyed going to Jack and Maureen's home either for work as a get together or with my children. My condolences go out to Jack and their friends and family. I know she was deeply saddened by the loss of her nephew Ryan. Hopefully they are together again in a much better place, preparing some of her famous chocolate chip cookies for us when we ourselves, make the final journey..Love, Nick.##imported-begin##Nick Stargu##imported-end##
