“ Dear Sponzo Family,

Marcia went to a meeting at Jackson Hole, WY, which the Judge also attended, and we picnicked at Lewis Lake, of which he always reminded her fondly in later years. We also saw the geyser, Old Faithful. At dinner that night, he surprised us by telling us that it was his 75th Birthday! But that was the kind of man he was. He, and you, are in our thoughts and heartfelt prayers.##imported-begin##Marcia and John Jr. Speziale##imported-end##

“ Dear Marilyn and family:

It's been many many years but when I saw the obituary for your dad it brought back many memories of the days of McVane & Sponzo, the old office at the corner of Webster Street, your house on Selden Hill way before your sister was born. Ronna Reynolds is a client who has told me about you and your successes and your following your father's footsteps as did I. My sympathies to you and your sister on your father's death.

“ *Dear Marilyn and family,
I happened upon your Dad's obituary in the New Haven Register today. It prompted a wonderful flash back from our childhood. Remember when your Dad would make a game of throwing a ball to us? I seem to remember a line up of you, Mary and myself. He would make a big show of throwing it to one of us and then throw it to the other. I remember us laughing and giggling like crazy. Your Dad was not only a very accomplished man, he was a very nice man. I send my condolences on your loss.*

Sincerely,

Janet Hooper##imported-begin##Janet Hooper##imported-end##
