

Michael J. Pinto

May 21, 1949 - December 4, 2007

PINTO, Michael J.

Michael J. Pinto, 58, of East Windsor and formerly of Bristol, died Tuesday December 4, 2007 after a long illness. Born in Hartford, the son of the late James and Mary Biggins Pinto, he had lived in the Hartford area most of his life. Michael was a graduate of Northwest Catholic High School 67, coached softball in the South End of Hartford, and was an avid Giant and Yankee fan. He was employed as a service writer for the former Grody Chevrolet in West Hartford. He leaves his two brothers and two sisters; James Pinto and his wife Mary of West Hartford, Andrew Pinto of Brooklyn, CT, Eileen Maznicki and her husband John of Enfield, and Geraldine McGloin and her husband Frank of West Hartford. His aunt Olive Pinto and 17 nieces and nephews also survive him. Michael's family wishes to thank the staff at Kettle Brook Care Center in East Windsor, especially, Courtney, Beth and Fran for their years of care and kindness. Friends are invited to join the Pinto family at the celebration of a Mass of Christian Burial on Friday Dec. 7th at 10:00 a.m. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church 872 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. Burial will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. Calling hours are TODAY from 4-7 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. Memorial contributions in his name may be made to Kettle Brook Care Center, 96 Prospect Hill Rd. East Windsor, CT 06088. Online messages of remembrance and sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Mike,

*You were always an imposing but friendly figure in the hallways and on the football field for Northwest. We are grateful to have known you and your kind ways.
It's 40 years since we've been there, but you've left an everlasting impression on our hearts.##imported-begin##Rich Lamb##imported-end##*
