“ To The McGuire Family:

It is with much sadness that I write these words in memory of Mrs. Nathalie K. McGuire, my neighbor for the past three years. We did not see and or talk much, but her gentle spirit radiated from her smile and eyes whenever we would meet entering or existing our cars with Mr. John J. McGuire by her side. I loved to watch him open the door for her, extend his hand-out like a perfect gentleman, but most importantly like a husband who loved and cherished his beloved. I believe that when two people meet and fall in love a special room is created in each of their hearts for their loved-one. I invite each of you to visit the special room you have created for Ms. Nathalie and visit by remembering her, by talking with her, and by celebrating a life well lived. May the God who promised to lead us into eternal life be your source of joy; knowing and believing that the absence of her physical body leads her into a life that will always keep her safe and in peace.

Blessings upon all of you!
