GANDZA. Nicholas

Nicholas Gandza of West Hartford, husband of Shirley Shorey Gandza, died on February 1, 2011, from complications of cancer and Shy Drager Syndrome. He was the son of the late Michael and Mary Gandza, he grew up in Hartford and graduated from Weaver High School and Hartford State Technical Institute. Nick proudly served in the Army Signal Corp in Korea during the Korean War. Upon his return home he joined IBM where he was employed until his retirement. He was a member of the West Hartford Regents and the American Legion Post 96 in West Hartford. In addition to his wife, Shirley, Nick was most proud of their three children and five grandchildren, Brenda Brede Jeffrey and their sons Matthew and Douglas; Carol Zenke Scott and their children Scott, Jr. and Nancy; Michael Gandza Donna and their son, Nicholas. He also leaves a sister, Alice Padrevita Francis and her family; sister-in-law Beverly McKeon Robert and her family. He will be buried at Fairview Cemetery with Military Honors during a private family service. Friends are invited to join his family on Sunday, February 6 from 12:00 to 3:00 pm at Angelo's on Main, at Rockledge Golf Club, 289 South Main St., West Hartford, CT 06107. In lieu of flowers, in Nick's honor, please perform an act of kindness to brighten someone's life. Messages of condolences may be made on www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Truly sorry to here about Nick's passing. Nick was a mentor and an inspiration to me for many years with IBM. I thought of Nick numerous times but regretfully didn't contact him over the years. I will always remember Nick as a gentle giant who always did the right thing. We had a lot of good times and interesting conversations at Conn Mutual Life where we worked together. He is at peace now and I'm sure we will all see him again in heaven. God Bless##imported-begin##Edward##imported-end##

“ Shirley, My deepest sympathy to you and all your family in the loss of Nick. I came to know him better last year as we worked side by side for the 60th Weaver reunion. He was the epitome of the 'strong, silent type' with a heart of gold. He will be missed. Sincerely, Marge Hellyar###imported-begin###Marge Hellyar###imported-end##
