

Olga "Lyolya" Simanovich

May 14, 1930 - February 26, 2021

Olga ("Lyolya") Simanovich, 90, of West Hartford, CT, passed away on Friday, February 26, 2021, surrounded by a loving family. Born May 14, 1930 in the town of Elsk, Belarus, to Sofia and Solomon Freylakhman, she was the oldest of four siblings. Olga was predeceased by her beloved husband Boris and son Mikhail, and is survived by her daughter Dina, her grandchildren Yulia, Marina, Olga, and Alina, and her nine great-grandchildren, Andrey, Yana, Alexander, Sophia, Jacob, Lachlan, Lily, Ilana, and Veniamin.

Compassionate and honest, Olga was a brilliant professional educator, admired and respected by both her students and peers. Her passion and wisdom, solid moral compass, and selfless generosity inspired and gave strength and hope to her family and everyone around her. These values have been instilled in her children and will be passed down to the generations to come.

Olga will live in our hearts forever. May her memory be a blessing.

Tribute Wall

“ Physical presence does not dictate emotional connection.

Those lucky enough to have known Olga gained a spiritual alchemy of integrity, wisdom, and a boundless passion for education.

Olga strove to understand the very essence of things and truly made this world a better place—leaving behind a legacy for the living to follow.

Olga's granddaughter - February 10 at 01:18 PM

“ Arrive in Style was purchased for the family of Olga "Lyolya" Simanovich.

March 01, 2021 at 07:24 AM