“ My prayers for the loss of such a beautiful lady go to my family and her friends.
My Aunt was always an Angel to me and now will be for all here on earth and for the Lord above.
If only I told her "I Love You" more even if I didn't know what else to say?I never thought that I'd never see you again, but I guess the Lord needed you more.I miss your pretty smile,your caring warm heart,always knowing when something was wrong or when to consoling me.I loved going to Aunt Pat's house because she was fun to be around,always trying to feed you and had the best snacks.She made the best fried chicken,and chocolate chip cookies.A favorite memory:she was giving my cousin Billy a hair cutbowland went to far with clippers and asked me to help fix because she didn't want him to be embarrassed in school.I did my best and told him how handsome he was so he wouldn't be mad at her.Thanks for the fun and thanks for sharing your love.Love you always,Diane###imported-begin##Diane and Dave Roth###imported-end##
