Flattery, Patricia

Patricia Flattery, 88 years, of Hartford, CT, died peacefully at her home at Avery Heights, Thursday, July 23. Born October 13, 1921, in Ballinough, Clara, County Offaly, Ireland, she "blew into" the U.S. with the Great New England Hurricane in 1938. She lived with her sister and brother-in-law, Elizabeth and Richard Reddington, along with her nephews, Richard and Donald Reddington on Madison Avenue for many years. She worked at Royal Typewriter until that closed down and then had a long career with Wiremold in West Hartford, making lifelong friends at both places. She was an active lifelong member of the Irish American Home in Glastonbury, spending New Years or any other occasions listening to music at the club. She returned nearly every summer to Ireland to visit with friends and family. For the last few years she has resided at Avery Heights under the loving care of all the staff there. She was an active participant in nearly all social activities. She leaves numerous nieces and nephews in the U.S., Ireland, and around the world, all with loving memories of "Aunt Pat". The funeral will be Monday July 27th 9:30 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford with the celebration of her Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. in Our Lady of Sorrows Church, 16 Greenwood St., Hartford. Relatives and friends may call at the funeral home from 3-5 pm on Sunday, July 26th. Patricia and the other residents at Avery Heights enjoyed immensely the visits by Sammy, the yellow lab.
