

Patricia Ann Welch

April 11, 2026

Patricia Welch passed away April 11 at the age of 77. She was born in Hartford to Helen and John Welch on January 8, 1949 and was raised in West Hartford.

Pat was very independent. After graduating from Northwest Catholic High School in 1967 she went off to college and never looked back.

She took sailing lessons, earned her private pilots license, and traveled the world. Her career took her from Washington DC to San Francisco where she retired from the Federal Reserve as Vice President Statistics and Business Continuity Officer in 2007. After retirement, she relocated to Canton, CT and gave her time to the Red Cross Disaster Services, Canton CERT and the Canton Public Library.

Pat leaves behind her sister Mary, brothers Daniel and David (Pam), nieces Cathy, Deidre Rief (Phil) and nephew John (Annie). Pat was predeceased by her parents and brother John.

There will be a private burial. Memorial donations may be made to the American Red Cross-CT Chapter, 209 Farmington Avenue, Farmington, CT or DIGDEEP, 110 W. 11th St., Suite 400, Los Angeles, CA
