

Paul Edwin Theroux

September 1, 2017

Paul Edwin Theroux, 67, died Friday in East Windsor, CT. He was born October 9, 1949, in Springfield Massachusetts to the late Harold and Mary (Parker) Theroux. He was a graduate of the former Classical High School in Springfield, Massachusetts and a graduate of the University of Massachusetts (Amherst). Prior to a long illness, he worked many years in promotion marketing and he was especially proud of his work on Woodstock '94. Paul was always the most charismatic man in any room, he was full of dad jokes and had a bright infectious smile. He was a marathon runner and he competed in 26 races in cities including Boston, New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis. He was also an avid golfer and known for his love of sports and music. Paul is survived by his brother Gene and sisters Nancy and Susan, as well as his loving wife Jean Theroux, son Christopher Theroux, daughter Ashley Theroux-Hui, son-in-law Tom Hui along with his grandchildren Gabriel and Ellis. A memorial service will be held this Friday, September 8th at 11am at Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford. Burial will follow at Cedar Hill Cemetery in Hartford. Directions and online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

My brother, will be greatly missed by many. He managed to take, only my parents best qualities . He lived a life of inspiring others to be the best they could be and then to push a little harder. He had overcome, so many challenges in his life and only gave support to others to do the same. He will be missed but his memory and love will carry on. 💖
