“ Paula was my first cousin. When she attended Syracuse U., she lived with us. She is the one who taught me to knit and later on, to swim. Though I hadn't seen her in years, I'll always remember her for that.##imported-begin##Bette Maron##imported-end##

“ I GOT TO KNOW PAULA IN THE LAST FEW YEARS WHEN SHE JOINED MY BOOK CLUB. IN ADDITION TO THAT I HAD THE GOOD FORTUNE OF MEETING HER QUITE OFTEN AT CORNERSTONE POOL WHERE SHE CAME TO SWIM VERY SERIOUSLY...AND VERY RECENTLY I HAD OCCASION TO CALL HER REGARDING BOOK CLUB WHEN SHE TOLD ME HOW HOPELESSLY ILL SHE WAS, AND HOW IF NOT FOR HER HUSBAND SHE WOULD BE TOTALLY UNABLE TO GO ON. YET WHEN I TOLD HER ABOUT THE UPCOMING BOOK DISCUSSIONS I SENSED JUST A HINT OF OPTIMISM...AND OF COURSE WE ALWAYS COMPARED THE MANAGEMENT OF OUR VERY CURLY HAIR. PAULA WAS SMART, STRONG, AND REFRESHING. I SHALL MISS HER AND I SEND YOU MY HEARTFELT SYMPATHY. SINCERELY, ESTELLE BERNSTEIN##imported-begin##Estelle Bernstein##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to hear about Paula's death. I met her just a couple of years ago through The League of Women Voters. She had a sparkling personality that literally lit up the room. She will be missed.

My sincere condolences to Paula's entire family.##imported-begin##Beverly Miller##imported-end##
