

Paulie E. Luedee

March 15, 1928 - December 23, 2012

LUEDEE, Paulie E.

Paulie E. Luedee, 84, passed away on Christmas Eve 2012 at her home in Farmington, surrounded by her loving children. She is survived by her daughter Paulette Luedee of Farmington, her daughter Richelle Luedee and husband Bill of Redding, and her son Richard Luedee and wife Robin of Doraville, GA. Paulie was a Graphic Designer at Standard Register in West Hartford and continued to sketch and draw throughout her life. She was an avid reader, and loved to work outdoors on the upkeep of her property, well into her 80's. She also enjoyed the company of her friends in the community and those in her gourmet group of which she was a member for many years. Paulie will be remembered for her compassion for others and her kind and caring ways. She was always there for her children and will be deeply missed. Family services were private. It seems that those Matriach's on Elizabeth Road are passing on now, but they shaped us all, and their memories will live on for ever in all of us "kids."
I can vividly recall her sweet voice when she called you all inside.
And she let Paulette and me play in the woods, do A Halloween
Scarey House, plus have me over to dinner.
My sincere sympathy to you all.

“ Paulette, Richelle and Richard,
My sisters and I are very sorry to hear of your mother's passing. We have so many memories, and your mother of course, was a dear friend and neighbor to our mother. For some reason I clearly remember how impressed I was as a child to see your mother lay out cereal boxes and bowls and spoons the night before for morningtime. To this day, I remember your mother if I do the same! I also loved the way she would wrap sandwiches with wax paper in a different way than my mother did. Your mom always kept a beautiful home and was warm and friendly to me as a child. God Bless you all.

Love,

Paulette, Richelle and Richard, I am very sorry to hear of the loss of your mom. In recent years I would see her briefly around town and she was always so warm and caring toward me. You are in my prayers.
